

February 9, 2011

First of all, thanks to all for their work and effort in bringing another TCTV Awards Show together. Overall, it was a very nice show.

There was one mistake that accidentally slipped through. According to the rules printed on the 19th Call for entries, under Eligibility Criteria, Rule #4 reads:

"4. Users/Producers are limited to enter a single program per category.

However, a look at the a look at the 2010 entries shows that the rule was forgotten and some producers did enter more than a single program per category.

I assume that this was an accidental mistake and no ill will was intended, but it did give an advantage to those who ignored the rule and entered more than one program per category.

All I ask is that for the next TCTV Awards Show, if the rule is still in place, make sure it is enforced.

Sincerely,
